HEY BABY, WHAT'S YOUR SIGN?

EMERSONIAN 2001

LEO

It's no coincidence that the Emerson college mascot is a lion. Not only does the lion represent the Leo in Zodiac charts, but Leo's main color is gold. Leos are well known for wanting to be the center of attention. Here at Emerson, one is not likely to find too many wallflowers.

Other Leo characteristics include loyalty, confidence, dramatism, dominance, and stubbornness. Leo's element is fire and its ruler is the sun. Emersonians shine all over campus from beneath a spotlight to in front of a camera. If they do not feel appreciated they won't have any qualms with letting you know. However, their love, passion, and generosity is rarely forgotten. Their hearts sing when they make others happy. There is no doubt Emersonian Lions have a passion for their studies which is supported by the Leo's key phrase, "I will."

Sound like any Emerson students you know?

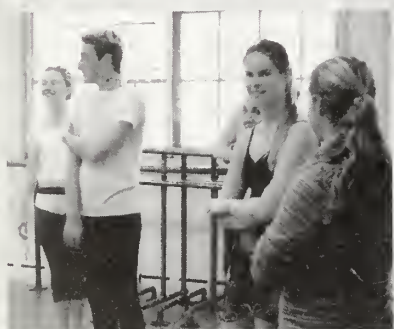

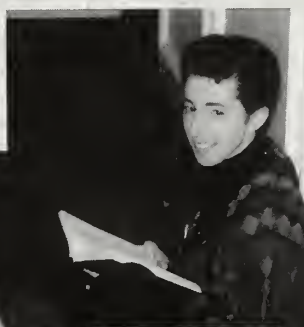

This year we wanted a theme everyone could relate to. A theme which was fun and well known, yet showcases the diverse personalities of our campus. The only choice that fit this description was the Zodiac! Whether you believe in the Zodiac or not, it is everywhere you go. So if you're Zodiac savvy or if you only know the characteristics of your own sign, we're hoping this book will put a fun spin on college life. Besides, we feel it ties into Emerson life quite well. It is no accident that "look at me" Leo starts the book off and a family oriented Cancer closes it out. Let's see if you can make all the astrological connections.

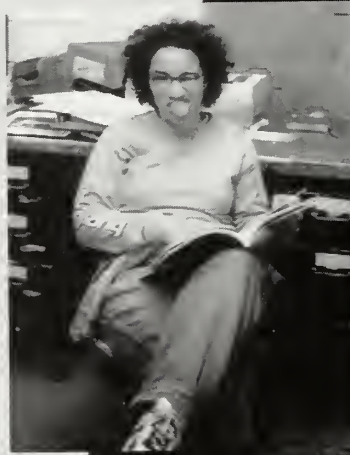

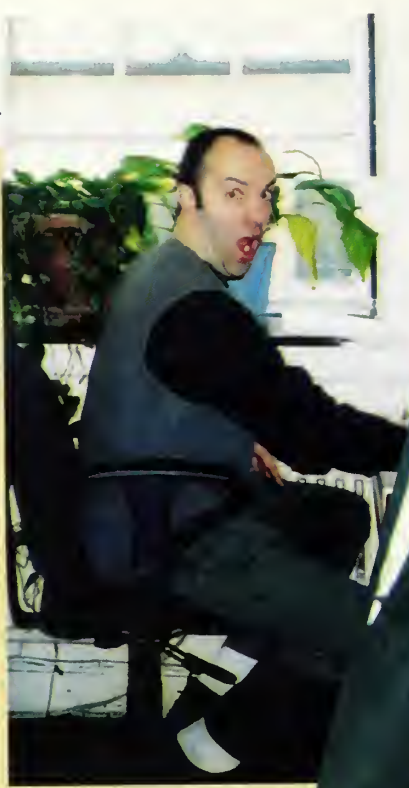

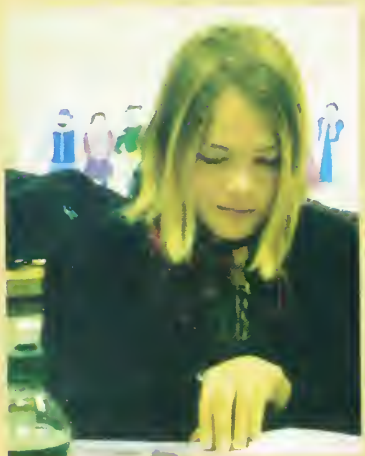

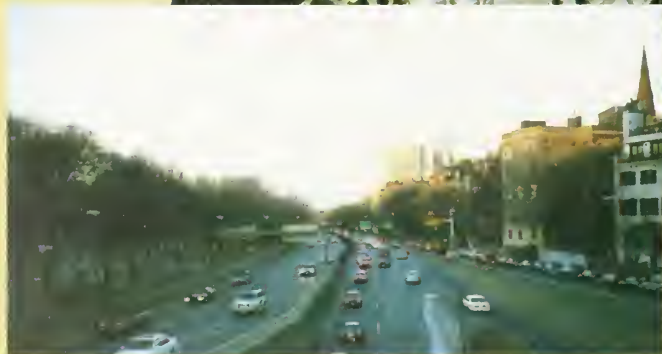

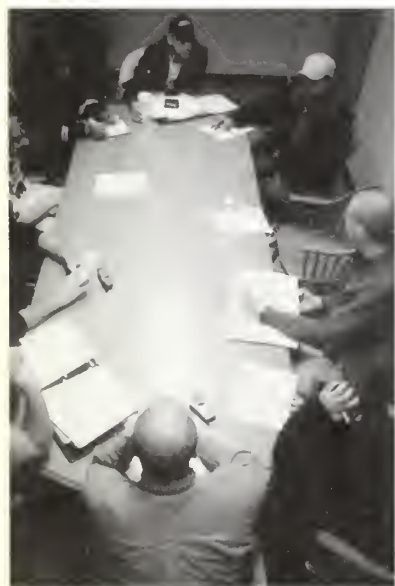

VIRGO

They say Virgos strengths are that they are humble, practical, efficient and strive for perfection. In this way, we can see our underclassmen. Our underclassmen have always strived for perfection in the arts and in communications. Our underclassmen are optimists in this skeptical world, and their passion for knowledge is great. They are meticulous and conscientious about their work and themselves.

LIBRA

Student Life supports programs that allows Emersonians to explore opportunities that complement their academic endeavours. Combining academics with student life creates a sense of balance for everyday life at Emerson. Emersonians use their artistic capabilities on a different level, creating both a social life and academic excellence. These are some qualities shown in Libras. By refining all information acquired, Libras impartially and graciously use their artistic knowledge to create academic and social excellence.

The Student Union

The student union once again served as the "living room" of Emerson's campus. The new computer kiosk got a lot of use as Emerson students became more wired. There were many meetings, rehearsals, and readings of student work throughout the year. In addition, "Screeny" the Monolith was added to the lobby which provided a new venue for student organizations to advertise their events. The Union remains the crown jewel of the Back Bay properties and the home away from home for many Emersonians.

Performing Arts

6 Arlington

6 Arlington St.

Moving across campus, facing the Boston Public Garden, lies a ten story hall which houses approximately 150 students. Residents share lounges, kitchen facilities, and common or semi-private baths. This hall includes an all-female floor and an extended quiet/study hours floor. Residing at 6 Arlington is the Academic High Achievement Floor (AHA) which is part of the theme housing program.

80 Boylston

LB.

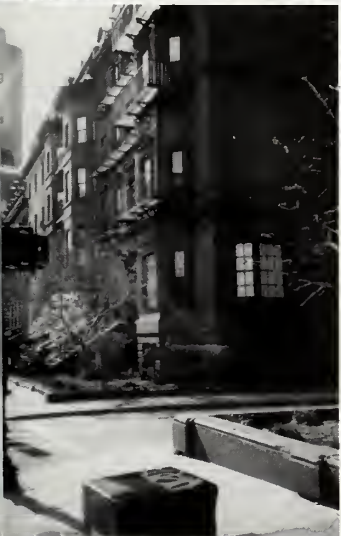

The Little Building, more commonly known as the LB, is the place that 750 Emerson students call home each year. Mostly underclassmen live in the Little Building, but you can find just about anyone there. They might be in the C-store, the Athletics Office, Public Safety, Caberet, the Bookstore, or the Dining Hall. The sure place to find someone you know is in front of the LB.

100 Beacon

Across campus, a ten story dormitory houses 220 students at 100 Beacon Street. 100 provides a great and intimate atmosphere. Compared to the crowds in front of the Little Building 100 Beacon tends to be more chill and less chaotic. It also offers extended quiet hours floors, an all female floor and "The Writers' Block" theme floor.

1 3 2 - 1 3 4 Beacon

1 3 2 - 1 3 4 Beacon St.

This Back Bay brownstone is Emerson's smallest residence hall, housing approximately 75 students. Residents share common area baths, lounges, and kitchen facilities. Laundry facilities are located in the basement. The entire hall is a designated smoke-free and quiet study area, and also has several single gender floors.

Los Angeles Program

Students from all majors often elect to expand their education by heading out to L.A. Like the Libris, these students want to balance their experiences by tasting the West Coast work and lifestyle as well. There, students take one to two internships for credit, and, only if necessary, take a class or two to finish their requirements. This gives students the opportunity to build their resume with career experience while finishing their education. Most students elect to have a car on campus because L.A. has so much to offer, public transportation not included. Plus, a car makes everything more readily available, like all of the famous Hollywood homes to the stars.

Kasteel Well Program

Once upon a time, not a long time ago, students embarked on an unforgettable journey.

Much to their surprise, the Kasteel Well in the Netherlands was not the end, but the beginning of an amazing experience. Students found themselves embarking on new adventures almost every weekend.

Returning students say that they would do anything to experience this magical trip again. Once again, the Kasteel Well has enchanted the hearts of Emersonians.

Professor Dulcia Meijers heads the Castle. Inge Vigleman leads Student Life and her assistant, Erik Krauss, leads many locally held activities. Will and Tehya housekeep. Grote Waag caters, and Huderison is on maintenance duty.

By balancing the sense of culture, Emersonians that traveled to the Kasteel Well show the qualities of Libra. Like the Libra, Emersonians artistically refine their sense of harmony with foreign cultures.

Catching the Stars on Film

SCORPIO

Like the Scorpio, Emerson's events are filled with passion and creativity. During Orientation, Emerson OLs transform the young fragile minds from high school graduates to college freshmen. The intensity of Org Fair allowed Emerson organizations to reach out and touch students in a more cultural, social, and academic way. The Emerson theatre events create an atmosphere of mystery, beauty, and artistic passion. Hand-Me-Down Night is an event which regenerates leadership positions for organizations for the upcoming year. Students involved with the EVVY Awards show their intense passion for artistic fields. Events at Emerson achieve mastery through communication.

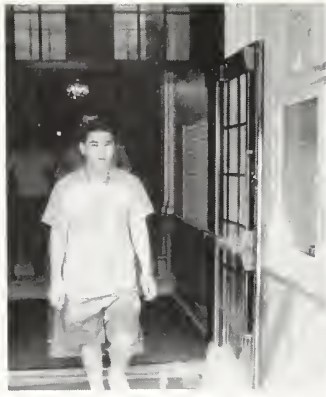

Orientation

Whistles, bright red shirts, and a strong set of vocal chords. These are the tools an Orientation Leader uses to welcome new students and their families to Emerson College. What makes an OL? Emerson pride, self-confidence, and the desire to make about 800 new Emersonians feel right at home. Orientation Leaders team up with the Core Staff to work and plan all summer for the arrival of Emerson's newest Lions. It isn't until Labor Day Weekend for the real work to start. New students arrive in their filled-to-the-brim cars to find their new home, surrounded by red-shirted and screaming upper classmen. This was everyone's first impression of what Emerson is going to be like, and by far the most shocking. Throughout the week of Orientation, the new students get a chance to hear some comedy, have their minds read, find out where all the Emerson buildings are, and dance their hearts out on the ever-popular Boat Cruise. When the week is over, the rest of the upperclassmen return and OL's go back to Emerson life as usual, but with a huge feeling of accomplishment. Like the Scorpio, orientation leaders use "intensity", "creativity", and "passion" in transforming incoming uneasy freshmen into strong Emersonians.

- Anthony Melius
Orientation Leader

EVVY'S

SAGITTARIUS

What better sign is there to represent the Emersonian Athletics than Sagittarius symbol of the Archer? Our Emerson Lions proudly "sport" Sagittarius' color purple as they beam with Emerson pride. Our athletes radiate optimism and adventure, personality traits of a Sagittarius, from sinking a three pointer to diving to returning a vicious spike.

Cheerleading

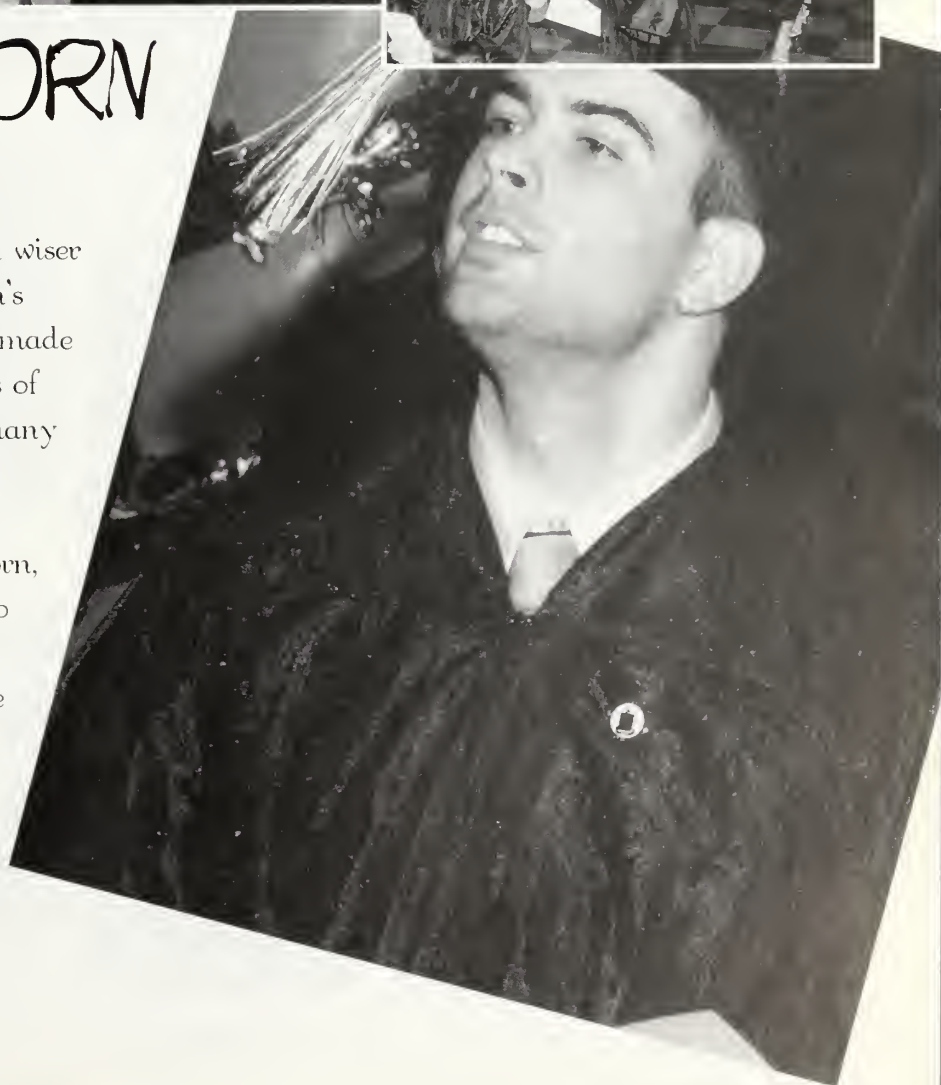

EC Cheerleading is dedicated to promoting spirit on the Emerson College campus. The team was formed in the fall of 1999 with the intention of performing cheers, dance routines and stunts at the school's NCAA Division III basketball games. EC Cheering is also involved in co-sponsoring events with other organizations and departments.

CAPRICORN

Seniors at last! Older and wiser seniors like the Capricorn's symbol of the goat have made it through the challenges of college life and tackled many obstacles along the way. Being as responsible and ambitious as the Capricorn, these seniors are ready to test their learned skills and traits on the outside world. Best of Luck seniors.

“I am mastering the challenges of the physical plane.” This phrase belongs to Capricorn and our graduating seniors. They have mastered and have overcome all challenges. Their patience has acquired them their diplomas. Like the Capricorn, these seniors have found structure for their ambitious lives.

They say you are a child of the eighties if:

- * You can remember ALF, the furry, brown alien from the planet Melmac.

- * You know the profound meaning of wax on, wax off.

- * You got super excited when it was Oregon Trail day in computer class at school.

- * You remember Eve Garland and her alien father and how she could stop time by touching her two index fingers together.

- * If you ever wanted to eat at the Max and go to Bay Side High. .

Hopefully you were all able to pick out at least one of those examples to identify with. Because relating with one of those examples makes you a child of the eighties and that means that you are about to graduate from college. . . .

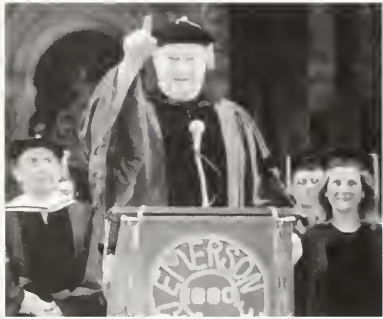

It's amazing to think how far we've come. From grade school to middle school to those tortuous yet exciting days of high school when we knew everything there was to know and we patiently waited for our parents to catch up. Then came that day that meant a world of difference. We got that envelope in the mail. The envelope that meant a freedom unlike any we'd ever known. It meant leaving home, making our own decisions, and possibly the most important of all—life away from our parents. This of course was the day we were accepted to college. And better than that, the day we were accepted to Emerson. Whether you came to Boston as a freshman, a transfer, or a continuing education student, it didn't matter. Emerson students have one remarkable trait in common— we knew that we wanted to be communicators and that we wanted to start right away.

Whether your passion lies in public relations, theatre, film, communication disorders, or writing- you knew that Emerson was the place to begin cultivating that passion. The second we entered this institution the opportunities became endless. Just looking out on you today, I know that I am looking out on a pool of incredible talent. Talent that has constantly amazed me during my years at Emerson. As new students, we entered with drive and determination to succeed. As seniors we used that enthusiasm to shape and mold our natural talent so that we guarantee our success in a community much larger than Emerson's. We have learned from faculty and staff, from organizations and internships, from directed studies, but possibly the most important lessons we learned from each other. It has been our friends that have taught us at 3 AM when we thought we would never find an answer. And not just about school but about life. . .

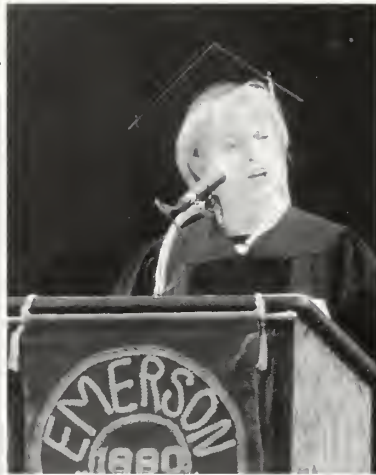

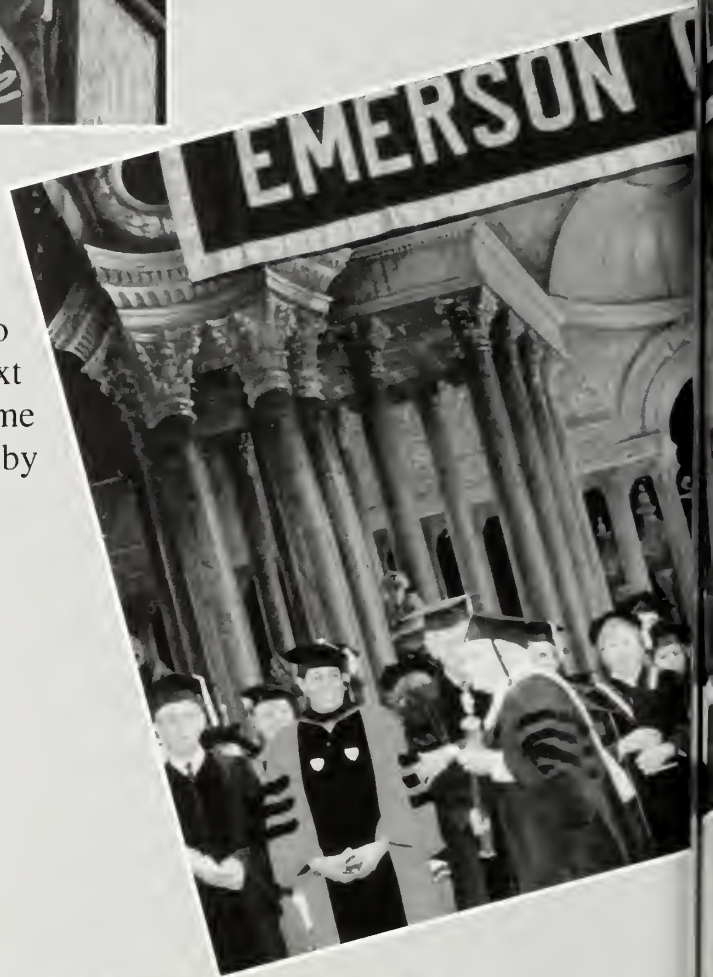

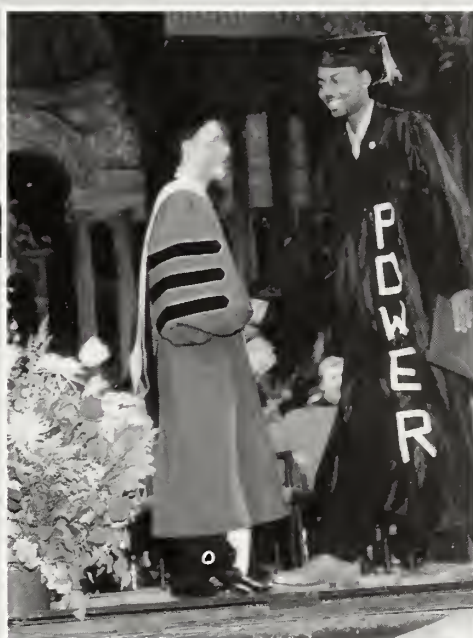

So I hope that all of you have begun mastering your fields of study but that you have learned, through years of long hard work, to balance that work with play. I hope you can all say that you have those few close friends who shared in your hopes and dreams, fears and frustration, and loves and loses over the past few years. And be sure to hold on to them. When things may seem overwhelming in that so called 'real world,' you will always have someone who you can talk to who will be willing to listen, someone who will accept you for who you are no matter what, and someone to remind you that expression is necessary to evolution. So, as a fellow senior, I say congratulations, we've earned it. We are a lucky group who still feels that same drive and determination that we did as new students.

And instead of wishing you good luck, because we don't need it, I wish for all of you the reality of a dream come true. Because I know, that as we listen to each other's names being read aloud next week at graduation, it won't be the last time we hear or see those names surrounded by success.

Emerson professor writes about women in media

Amber Lewis
Beacon staff

Although they have never met, Donna Halper will not forget Eunice Randall.

Halper, a journalism and visual and media arts professor, came across Randall's history while searching articles catalogued on reels of unindexed microfilm. Halper was hoping to find a woman who, like herself, was a pioneer in radio.

While she spotted the names of women who hosted cooking shows or sang, Randall was the first she found who was noted as an engineer.

"I found this article about a radio station that I had never heard of, called WGI, and it turns out it was the first radio station on the air in Massachusetts in 1920," said Halper.

"WBZ said they were first, but they were not. Not only did I find a radio station I had never heard of, but working there was Eunice, as a woman engineer."

Halper's quest for uncovering the forgotten history of women in radio history began five years ago, while teaching introduction to mass communication at Emerson.

AQUARIUS

WOW, what a year! Aquarius is the sign for our year in review. Like the Aquarius' symbol the Waterbeaver, Emerson students move in a cycle of classes, studies, parties and sleep throughout the year. Though Emersonian live in their own world outside the life of Emerson there are exciting and progressive news breaking events that occur each day.

The Election

2000

After five weeks of hand recounts, court appeals, concessions and retractions, Vice President Al Gore's final concession of the presidency to Texas Governor George W. Bush and his vice-presidential running mate Dick Cheney brought an end to one of the longest and most eventful elections in American history.

What happened? The Election at a Glance:

November 7 (Election Day): Shortly before 8 p.m. EST, the major television networks estimate Al Gore and vice-presidential running mate Joe Lieberman the winners.

AP Photo/Jim Cole

With a too-close-to-call election throughout much of the nation, Florida becomes the key state in deciding the winner, as the next president will need Florida's 25 electoral votes to win.

November 8: At 2:15 a.m., results from Florida begin to suggest George Bush carries the battleground state. Gore concedes the election to Bush, thinking Bush has at least a 50,000 vote lead. Forty-five minutes later, Gore gets word Bush's lead has shrunk to only a few thousand votes, and retracts his concession.

Due to the closeness of the election, the focus turns to questionable ballots and fair voting practices.

In St. Louis, Mo., a controversy arises over a lower court's ruling to keep the polls open past the 7 p.m. deadline.

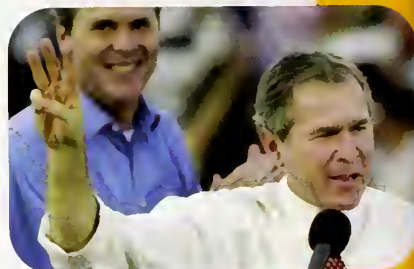

AP Photo/Phil Sandlin

In Palm Beach County, Fla., an unexpectedly large number of votes for Reform Party candidate Pat Buchanan lead to questions about the legitimacy of the punch-card-style "butterfly ballot."

AP Photo/Victor Caivano

November 9: Gore's team requests a hand recount of ballots in four Florida counties, Palm Beach, Miami-Dade, Broward and Volusia.

November 16: Bush's lawyers submit written arguments to the U.S. Federal Appeals Court to end recounts.

November 22-December 8: Hand recounts and legal battles continue, making the word "chad" (the small piece of paper punched out of the ballots) a household word.

December 9: The U.S. Supreme Court halts the manual recounts and sets a hearing for two days later.

December 13: In a public concession speech, Gore states he no longer wishes to prolong the election, and yields the presidency, making George W. Bush the nation's 43rd president, and the first chief executive since Benjamin Harrison in 1888 to claim the office with the majority of electoral votes but a minority of the popular vote nationwide.

Elían González, a six-year-old Cuban boy found off the coast of Florida, survived yet another ordeal: the brutal custody battle between relatives in Miami and his father in Cuba. The long struggle culminated in a late-night raid on a Miami home where armed U.S. agents seized Elían by force, putting him in the custody of his father who returned with Elían to Cuba.

In a stunning surprise move, Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak announced his resignation. Barak's popularity had dropped during the ongoing conflict between Israelis and Palestinians. Barak stood for re-election, hoping for a vote of confidence from the Israeli People, but lost to Likud party leader Ariel Sharon.

Many thought peace between North Korea and South Korea would never happen, but the past year saw warming relations between the two countries, which are still technically at war. Images of North Korean leader Kim Jong Il entertaining South Korea's Kim Dae-jung at a June peace summit in Pyong-yang were considered some of the most surprising news pictures of the year.

Tragedy struck when Air France Flight 4590, one of only 13 Concorde jetliners in use, caught fire upon takeoff and crashed into a small hotel in the French town of Gonesse. The 109 people aboard were killed, as well as four people on the ground.

Hillary Rodham Clinton became the first active first lady of the United States to win an elective office when she defeated U.S. Republican representative Rick Lazio for one of New York's U.S. Senate seats.

Elections in Yugoslavia turned angry when Prime Minister Slobodan Milosevic lost to the people's choice Vojislav Kostunica 35 percent to 55 percent. The election's close margin of error would have warranted a recount, but Milosevic refused to hold another election, declaring himself the winner. The outraged public rallied violently in the streets of Belgrade, and the riots combined with pressure from the U.N. and Russia finally forced Milosevic to concede the election to Kostunica.

Bitter cold and freezing water did not deter an estimated two and a half million people who bathed in India's Ganges River on the first day of a Hindu religious festival. The Maha Kumbh Mela, or Grand Pitcher Festival, takes place every 12 years and sees millions of devotees bathe in the Ganges to purify their sins.

As the price of crude oil reached a 10-year high of $34 per barrel, angry truckers and farmers throughout Europe blockaded oil depots and put a chokehold on much of the nation's fuel supply. The high petrol prices led to an unprecedented show of public dissent in European countries, particularly Britain.

After 15 years of co-hosting with Regis Philbin on "Live with Regis and Kathie Lee," Kathie Lee Gifford bid farewell to the show. The 46-year-old entertainer, wife of former football star and Monday night sports announcer Frank Gifford, cited concerns about spending more time with her two young children, son Cody and daughter Cassidy, as reasons for leaving the show. ABC soap opera actress Kelly

Ripa was selected as Gifford's replacement.

The Food Network brought popular Japanese cooking show The Iron Chef to the United States, where it quickly became a cult hit. The theatrical Japanese program featured an unusual combination of WWF Smackdown-type competition and gourmet cooking, pitting the world's best chefs against each other in a culinary battle using eclectic ingredients such as pork belly or giant eel.

Web superstar Napster founded and created by 19-year-old Shawn Fanning, was pulled into court as the Recording Industry of America sued to stop the extremely successful

Despite pleas from the band for fans to move back because people were being pressed up against the stage, eight Pearl Jam fans suffocated in a mosh pit at Denmark's Roskilde Festival. A ninth victim died five days later in a hospital. Twenty-five were injured at the four-day festival, where approximately 50,000 people turned out to see 200 bands play.

The Beatles' 1966 record "Revolver" has been named the greatest rock album ever in a poll conducted by the cable music channel VH1. The Beatles capped a list of the 100 best rock albums taken from a VH1 poll of 500 rock journalists and musicians, including Britney Spears, Jackson Browne, Elvis Costello, Roberta Flack and Art Garfunkel. The Fab Four are still topping the charts with "1," a collection of all the Beatles' number one hits.

Eminem's "The Marshall Mathers LP" sold 1.76 million copies during its first week.

Versions of ABC's hit smash "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire" hit the airwaves in 31 countries, with more on the way. In India, a Hindi-language version became the country's most popular program ever.

After a high-profile bidding war with other filmmakers, Universal Studios finally own the prized rights to Dr. Seuss's popular children's story

"How the Grinch Stole Christmas," when director Ron Howard impressed Seuss's widow with his take on the tale. Comedy icon Jim Carrey stole the show as the nasty green villain. A blockbuster smash, the movie was the highest grossing film of the year.

Harry Potter mania infected readers around the world. Although Book One of the series, "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone," was first published in 1997, Y2K saw a mad surge in popularity for the boy wizard. The first four of the seven-book series, released by the end of 2000, sold 60 million copies in 200 countries. Surgeons at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center performed the first coronary bypass in the United States on a conscious patient. The first live cloned piglets were presented to the world in April. The pigs were cloned from fetal-pig skin cells and scientists believe that due to the similarities between porcine (pig) and human organs, the techniques used to clone this litter may eventually create a supply of genetically modified pig livers and other organs that would be acceptable to the human immune system.

Researchers from Carnegie Mellon unveiled Nomad, the first robotic planetary rover with onboard intelligence. Previous planetary explorers, such as the Mars Pathfinder, needed human controllers to tell them what to do, but Nomad performs tasks such as snapping pictures, collecting samples and sending data back to earth by itself. Using a laser range finder and spectrometer, the robot analyzes every single rock in its path. Scientists hope to employ future generations of the rover to explore other planets.

It was a bittersweet victory for scientists when they successfully cloned a dead Asian gaur, an extinct species, and brought it into the world from the belly of a farm cow. The baby bull, called Noah, was born at Trans-Ova Genetics in Sioux City, Iowa, but died shortly after birth.

Although Noah died, the project gives hope for ways to save endangered species and resurrect those already extinct.

After years of dreaming, planning and arguing over who should get the credit, the International Human Genome Project and Celera Genomics put their differences aside and officially announced they have (both) deciphered the 3.1 billion biochemical "letters" of human DNA. The amazing breakthrough will allow scientists vast insight into human health and disease at the molecular level, knowledge that will lead to a revolution in diagnosing and treating everything from Alzheimer's to cancer. The discovery is seen as one of history's great scientific milestones, the biological equivalent of landing on the moon.

A lawsuit was filed when a Chicago man said he suffered adverse allergic reactions after eating Kraft Taco Bell taco shells contaminated with St. Louis, a form of bioengineered corn not yet approved for human consumption. The corn was approved for pesticide-resistant animal feed only in 1998, but approval for human consumption was withheld due to the corn's shared characteristics with other foods that caused allergic reactions.

Numerous dot.com companies were pushed to the brink of failure due to poor business planning, intense competition and weak advertising revenue. The year saw nearly 42,000 dot.com company job cuts, billions of dollars in market capitalization lost, and plummeting share prices.

Astronaut William Shepherd and cosmonauts Sergei Krikalyov and Yuri Gidzenko made up the first team to inhabit the International Space Station, taking historic steps toward what NASA hopes will become a permanent living and working space.

Each team will work and live for four months aboard the Russian module Zvezda, conducting biological and technical experiments until another crew replaces them.

Israel-based Golan Inc. Ltd. introduced a 1.18-inch-long pill camera that, when swallowed, can travel through a human digestive tract, transmitting two still images per second to a Walkman-like receiver attached to the person's belt. Within 24 to 48 hours, doctors can download the data and assemble a more accurate and complete video of the intestines than can be taken through the more traditional endoscopy.

Y2K saw great improvements in the increasingly popular digital camera. Manufacturers shipped 5.1 million digital cameras throughout the U.S., and the improved photo quality, reduced cost, convenience of not buying film, and ability to review and erase unwanted shots have made the digital camera more popular than ever. TIME Magazine named the Nikon Coolpix 990 digital camera the Machine of the Year.

More than 10,000 of the greatest athletes from around the world gathered in Sydney, Australia to participate in the 27th Olympiad. Despite being dubbed "the best ever" by leaders of the International Olympic Committee, a 15-hour time difference between the United States and Australia kept many Americans from watching live as the United States came away with an unprecedented 97 medals.

Spectators beheld a dazzling opening ceremony, including the lighting of the torch by Australian runner (and native Aborigine) Cathy Freeman, who was later overcome with emotion when she won the gold for the women's 400-meter race.

Although the games received the lowest television ratings since 1968, many athletes gave inspirational performances.

United States sprinter Marion Jones fell short of her goal to win five gold medals, but still got the gold in the 100 and 200 meter sprints, and the 4x400 meter relay, as well as the bronze in the long jump and 4x100 meter relay, winning the medals in spite of the distraction of husband and shot put world champion

C.J. Hunter's positive drug test.

Maurice Green, U.S. sprinter, not only took home the gold, but he also retained the title of "World's Fastest Man" after finishing the 100-meter sprint in 9.8 seconds.

In the water, Laura Wilkinson had a surprise victory over a superb Chinese team to move from fifth place to first and win the first U.S. gold in the women's 10-meter platform in 36 years.

Defensive player of the year and game MVP Ray Lewis led a defense that intercepted four passes from the Giants and held New York to 152 total yards. The second and third touchdowns on three plays late in the third quarter were back-to-back kickoff returns by New York wide receiver Ron Dixon and Baltimore wide receiver Jermaine Lewis, creating a Super Bowl first.

The Kansas City Wizards downed the Chicago Fire, 1-0, for the MLS Cup at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C. The win was a surprise comeback for the Kansas City team who finished last in 1999, and had not been to the MLS post-season since 1997. With 10 saves in the Chicago game and a record 16 shutouts in 2000, Wizards goalie Tony Meola had one of the best seasons of any player in MLS history, earning MVP honors from MLS and Honda, as well as Aquafina Goalkeeper and Ace Comeback Player of the Year awards.

The Texas Rangers made shortstop Alex Rodriguez the highest-paid player in baseball history when he agreed to a 10-year, $252 million contract with the team. The 25-year-old All Star previously played for the Seattle Mariners.

After three and a half years off the ice, Hall of Fame hockey center and former team owner Mario Lemieux returned to play center with the Pittsburgh Penguins. Lemieux was responsible for leading the Penguins to consecutive Stanley Cup championships in 1991 and 1992. He also brought the financially strapped team out of bankruptcy last year, becoming the first former player from the four major North American sports leagues to own a team.

PISCES

The Pisces is known for their key phrase, "I believe", and here at EC, the students are very passionate about their work. Emersonians believe in giving their all not only to their studies, but to the wide variety of organizations that make up a very important part of the Emerson community. Like the Pisces, Emersonians use their imagination and vision to further the progress, product, and community of each organization while revealing the Pisces' self sacrificing characteristic.

THE BERKELEY BEACON

Since 1947, the Beacon has been the campus source for news and happenings. The independent newspaper is student run, written, designed and edited and strives to publish news of campus, local and some national interest. The Beacon is published weekly throughout the academic year, holding staff elections at the close of each semester. Writers, photographers, and layout people may join throughout the semester and one-time submissions of ideas, stories, artwork and photos are always welcomed.

DEVELOPED IMAGES

Emerson's only creative black and white photography magazine that showcases the talents of students. Published annually, photography may be submitted by anyone in the Emerson community.

EMERSON ALLIANCE FOR GAYS, LESBI- ANS AND EVERYONE (EAGLE)

EAGLE was established to promote visibility and acceptance of queer culture throughout the campus and community. Membership is open to any student who is interested in aiding others with a personal acceptance of homosexuality. The group sponsors social, academic and awareness functions for the community on issues relevant to queer culture.

EMERSON'S BLACK ORGANIZATION WITH NATURAL INTERESTS (EBONI)

Emerson's Black Organization with Natural Interests (EBONI) is an organization dedicated to the political and cultural re-awakening of students of African descent within the Emerson Community. Students organize and sponsor such programs as Harambee, Kwanzaa, cultural retreats, Black History Month, and the End of the Year Awards Banquet. EBOI also maintains a resource library, and sponsors discussions and awareness meetings designed to further the involvement and increase the influence of students of African descent at Emerson.

EMERSON REVIEW

The Emerson Review is an award-winning literary magazine dedicated to the publication of short stories, poetry, feature articles, book & film reviews, comics and black and white photography by students, guest alumni, and faculty members. Founded in the spring of 1970, it holds a tradition of quality work and free expression of ideas. All Emerson College students and alumni are welcome to submit to the Review. All submissions will be judged anonymously and impartially by the Review staff. Staff positions are open to all Emerson College students. Applications are available at the beginning of each semester.

FILM ARTS SOCIETY (FAS)

Located on the 4th floor of 128 Beacon, the Film Arts Society is a student-run umbrella organization which oversees Latent Image, the only published film theory and criticism magazine on campus teaching students to write about the industry; Women In Motion, a discussion/production group focusing mainly on women in cinema; and Films From the Margin, which offers those involved a chance to solicit film professionals and set up screenings for the Emerson campus and surrounding area. Past experience in these fields is not necessary. The members are always seeking enthusiastic people to help create a flourishing film community on campus.

HYENAONLINE.COM

The Hyena is a group of meddling kids who travel in their trusty "Mystery Machine" solving crimes and de-masking ghosts. Also, they create and publish a humor magazine every semester featuring Emerson's most talented writers and artists. At least that's what our mom's tell us.

JIMMY'S TRAVELING ALL-STARS

This technically oriented comedy group was established in the spring of 1999. Jimmy's Traveling All-stars seeks to promote comedy through use of both live and taped sketch performances.

MUSICAL THEATER SOCIETY

The Musical Theater Society was established in 1969 to foster and promote an appreciation of musical theater at Emerson. MTS provides opportunities for participating in outstanding musical productions on and off campus. MTS is responsible for Cabaret Players Productions and co-producing a major Spring Musical with the Performing Arts division performed at Emerson's Majestic Theater. MTS also sponsors guest appearances by leading musical theater personalities. MTS is open to all members of the college regardless of their field of study.

NATIONAL STUDENT SPEECH, LANGUAGE AND HEARING ASSOC.

While most of NSSLHA's members are Communication Disorders majors, NSSLHA membership is open to any Emerson student who is interested in the study of normal and disordered human communication. Members have the opportunity to take part in professional activities on the local, regional, and national level such as the ASHA convention which was held in Wash. D.C. this year. Emerson's branch of NSSLHA takes place in numerous community service activities in and around Boston and acts as a support system to CD students.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association was formed to "establish an effective student government, represent student interests, establish and facilitate all student organizations, act as a liaison between the student body, the administration, and the Board of Trustees, and promote and protect the rights of the students..." In coordination with the Office of the Dean of Students, the SGA allocates and monitors funds to student organizations and plans and executes student activities and programs for the campus. It also actively states the needs and protects the rights of the student body.

SWOLEN MONKEY SHOWCASE

For 15 years, this Emerson based comedy troupe has been performing sketch and improvisational comedy throughout Boston. Students are invited to audition as performers and writers. Audiences delight in sketches, videos, audios and improv comedy. This troupe proudly proclaims "We're not just a comedy troupe, we're all cousins!"

WECB

Named the Organization of the Year for 1998-1999, WECB has been broadcasting to Emerson for 54 years. It is America's first commercial college radio station and is rumored to make tasty cheese sandwiches. The station can be heard all around campus. It is usually seen holding concerts and other events. WECB covers all aspects of radio including DJ'ing, news, sales, production, promotion and special events. All students are encouraged to join as prior experience or licenses are needed.

WERS

New England's oldest noncommercial radio station, reaches out to a potential audience of three million people with its eclectic blend of music, news and public affairs programming. The 4,000 watt station is entirely student operated and has been recognized nationally for its excellence.

EMERSON CASTING

Emerson Casting is the "new kid on the block" this year and has certainly been "Hangin' Tough!" Emerson casting has hundreds of headshots of professional actors and actresses from the Boston area of every different age and ethnicity. These actors have been used to cast Emerson student film, television shows, music videos, commercials and theater productions. We have formed resources and events to help Emerson actors know what to expect in the professional world. and have huge plans for smoother operations in the future.

EMERSON DANCE COMPANY

The Dance Company is a close knit group - always welcoming with open arms new members. We have weekly classes in which the entire student body can attend.

"THIS IS PATHETIC"

"This is Pathetic" theatrically explores the personal, uncomfortable, disturbed and sometimes inappropriate aspects of life. By placing these events in an experimental comic atmosphere, it is easier to understand just what we never want to. Open auditions are held annually.

AMIGOS

Amigos is Emerson's Latino student organization that is dedicated to creating awareness of the Latino community at Emerson and sharing the differences within the Latin cultures. AMIGOS sponsors social, political, and cultural events. Everyone is encouraged to join and learn about the many cultures in the year, including film & anima screenings, food sampling events, field trips to museum exhibits, a Chinese New Year lunch, and a picnic in the Public Garden come spring.

EARTH EMERSON

Earth Emerson is the on-campus organization dedicated to saving the earth and having fun outside! We go hiking, visit the New England Aquarium, take day trips to the Harbor Islands, discuss environmental issues and recycle. Along with the Office of Housing and Residence Life, we have implemented the Residence Hall Recycling Program. Join us in exploring the green within the city - bring creative ideas and a sense of adventure.

EMERSON INDEPENDENT VIDEO

The goal of Emerson Independent Video is to provide an opportunity for students to apply and learn skills in all phases of television production in a professional atmosphere. Whether you are interested in marketing, directing, producing, or writing, the organization has a place for you. EIV has programs of all types in all stages of development and also produces weekly news broadcasts. EIV has its own fully equipped remote department for on-location shooting, and editing facilities for post-production. EIV also produces the EvvY Awards, where distinguished professionals present awards to Emerson's best. The EvvY Awards recognizes student excellence in all fields of communication and provides a forum to showcase the talent of Emerson students to industry professionals.

EMERSON INTERNATIONAL

Emerson International was revitalized in 1996 to provide support for Emerson's growing international population as well as increase cultural awareness within the College community. Made up of students of diverse backgrounds and interests, this organization provides social and educational programs such as films, speakers, and get-togethers.

EMERSON RECORDS

Emerson Records benefits students with hands-on experience in the disciplines of the recording industry. These disciplines include: production, engineering, marketing, distribution, record manufacture, graphic design and business management. Emerson Records also provides students with the experience of producing and distributing audio recordings in a business environment.

FRAMES PER SECOND

Frames Per Second is a student run organization dedicated entirely to teaching professional film production. It is the only organization on campus that involves many students in the pre-production, production, and post-production of films. It is an opportunity for students to learn every aspect of film making, hands on, before they reach their first production class.

HILLEL FOUNDATION

Emerson College Hillel is dedicated to the culture, observance, education and well being of Judaism throughout the world. Members of Emerson College Hillel participate in social, cultural, and religious programs. It is also a source of Jewish education and counseling services. It is run by a student board with a professional advisor. Membership is open to all students of Emerson.

NATIONAL BROADCASTING SOCIETY

Our organization offers membership on both the local and national levels to all students regardless of major. On the local level, NBS/AERho prides itself on being an organization that focuses as much on teaching its members important skills in production as on producing high-quality programming. In the past two years, NBS/AERho has produced over twenty shows and projects, and has organized several workshops for the campus. On the National Level, NBS/AERho provides members with opportunities to meet professionals in the industry through attendance at regional and national conventions. In addition, Alpha Epsilon Rho Honors is an honorary society open to national members in their junior and senior year. We welcome all incoming and returning students to participate in the workshops and projects we have planned for the upcoming year.

MERCUTIO

We are Emerson College's only dramatic theater troupe exploring all facets of producing, teaching, and performing theater. We are looking for interns who are interested in stage managing, producing, assistant directing and teaching.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club provides opportunities for Catholic students to develop their faith and to work in sponsoring prayerful, social, educational and service-oriented activities.

PUBLIC RELATIONS STUDENT SOCIETY OF AMERICA

A national society of students aspiring to careers in public relations. PRSSA at Emerson brings students together with public relations professionals in a broad range of profit and nonprofit careers.

RADIO AND TV NEWS DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION

One of the first student chapters of this national broadcast news directors professional organization is at Emerson College. It is open to students committed to broadcast journalism careers. RTNDA activities include professional and service programs as well as social events.

STUDENT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Students for four years; Alumni for Life! By working with the Office of Alumni Relations, SAA encourages interaction between current students and the alumni. Throughout student's four years, there are many opportunities to meet Emerson graduates from every decade and every career field.

SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTS

The branch of this Journalism Honor Society began at Emerson in the Fall of 1983. All journalism majors are encouraged to become actively involved. SPJ provides an opportunity for students to meet with area professionals regarding topics of current interest. Founded in 1909, SPJ works to inspire and educate the next generation of journalists; and protects First Amendment guarantees of freedom of speech and press.

TEAM PLAYERS

Team Players is Emerson's only theater group that performs exclusively for children. We perform on-campus at Brimmer Street and the Cabaret and also take our productions to local schools and after school programs where we create an "interactive" theater environment with children of all ages. We encourage Emerson students to become directors, designers, producers, actors, writers, and media persons (i.e. taping/filming performances).

UNDERGRADUATE WRITERS NETWORK

The Undergraduate Writers Network is dedicated to being an informal place for writers of all kinds to get feedback on their work. We are committed to being an informal, friendly, and noncompetitive group of writers. By meeting, workshopping, and doing writing exercises each week, we try to improve as writers and critical readers. We also work closely with the Writing, Literature and Publishing department to address the concerns of Emerson writers.

ARIES

Like Emerson's Superlatives, Aries are known to be independent, assertive, and energetic individuals. The Emersonians have chosen eight students fitting appropriately into the superlative categories, who shine among the Emersonians like Aries element of fire.

TAURUS

Showing an earthy, calm and steadfast attitude, Emerson's faculty and administration safeguard the academic environment. An enduring and persistent effort to prosper is the quality that links this department to the Taurus. Like the Taurus, the faculty and administration fulfill the resources we need for our academic security.

Administration

Emerson College was founded in 1880 by Charles Wesley Emerson

Motto: Expression Necessary to Evolution

Colors: Royal Purple and Gold

Mascot: The Lion

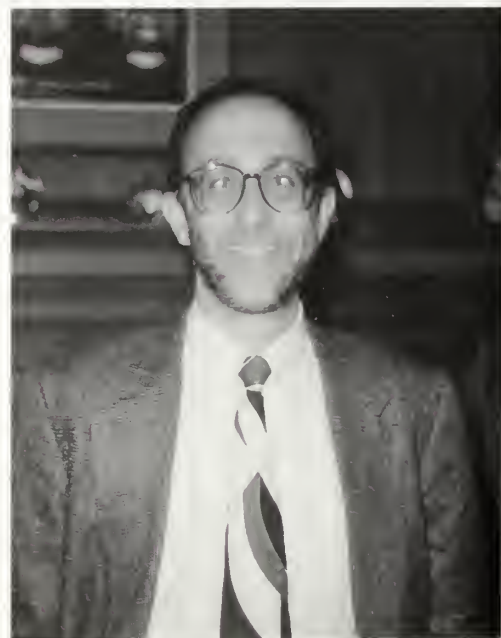

Alma Mater:

O Alma Mater, dear thy name we praise.
Our voices love inspired to thee we raise,
And we will cherish thee in days to come,
And think with loving hearts of Emerson.

Yours is the highest art, a shining goal.
You are the star of each and every soul,
And all your children's hearts as one.
We love thee Alma Mater Emerson.

Gemini

Gemini is the perfect sign for Greeks with the Gemini symbol being the twins. The Emersonian Fraternities and Sororities pride themselves on their brother and sisterhood. Gemini's glyph is the pillars of duality which coincides with this year's Greek Week theme: "United we stand, Together we fall".

Alpha Epsilon Phi

Alpha Epsilon Phi has the best of both worlds. We offer the benefits and the alumni connections of a national organization while keeping it down to earth with the diversity and uniqueness of Emerson. We are a social sorority originally founded in 1909 and brought to Emerson in 1988. Our organization provides a lifelong bond of friendship, sisterhood and fun.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, the world's largest fraternity with over 250,000 members across 200+ chapters, was originally founded at the University of Alabama in 1856. Our chapter, Massachusetts Epsilon, exists to serve both Emerson College and the Boston community through various social and charitable functions.

Kappa Gamma Chi

A professional sorority dedicated to furthering women's commitment to the Communicative Arts, upholding the health and well-being of the surrounding community and promoting sisterhood. Since 1902, Kappa has embraced the founding ideals of Emerson College.

Joey + Kate hoping they hit the jackpot.

Phi Alpha Tau

Phi Alpha Tau, founded in 1902, is the nation's oldest and foremost honorary, professional and social communicative arts fraternity. Originally, Phi Alpha Tau was created to foster the practice of debate and return it to the students. Today, the brotherhood combines traditional standards with new ideas to foster brotherhood, further the communicative arts, and promote the aims and ideals of Emerson College.

Tau entertains the crowd!

Sigma Phi Theta

Megan and Nicole...
sisters for life.

Sigma Phi Theta was originally founded in 1979 through our brother fraternity, Alpha Pi Theta. Over the years, we have emerged as a support group for women. We are dedicated to stimulating unity, growth, support, and awareness among the women of Emerson College. We encourage the growth of the individual, the sorority, and the Emerson College Community via workshops and activities held through the year.

Alpha Pi Theta

A special guest!

Alpha Pi Theta is a local social fraternity with goals of brotherhood, love, and trust. The brothers have carried on that tradition through their spirit, enthusiasm, and dedication to the College. The brotherhood is concerned with the welfare of the fraternity and of the College. Theta sponsors various social events on-campus.

Zeta Phi Eta

Zetas proud and loving

Zeta Phi Eta, established at Emerson College in 1908, is a national Professional Coed Fraternity in the Communication Arts and Sciences. Founded at Northwestern University in 1893, Zeta Phi Eta is the oldest national group of its kind. Since that time, Zeta has bonded together individuals committed to high standards in the communication arts and sciences, while providing opportunities for sharing professional interests through worthwhile activities.

My dearest Jennifer,

I have watched you grow into the very special person that you are. When you were younger, your Mother and I would take you to dance classes or to some recital, we marveled at your ability, but more importantly, your love of the art form. Now you are graduating from college ready to make your mark in the world. Stay true to your art and most importantly to yourself. Jessica, Jason, Eileen and I will always be here for you and I know your Mother will watch over you always.

You're bright, you're cool, you're beautiful,
You seem to have it all,
But what's inside that makes you tick,
is what makes you stand tall,

To count the ways we love you,
This simply can't be done,
You might as well count
songbirds,
Or number the rays of the Sun.

I guess we think you're perfect,
But we are not alone,
You have the very same
effect,
In anybody's zone.

It's simply inconceivable.
How proud of you we are,
You'll always be our miracle,
The Sky's most brightest star.

And when each precious
day is done,
On this you can rely,
Forever will our three be one.
This no one will untie.

Mom & Dad

DAVID

We wish you, We wish you,
We wish you these wishes..

A talent for living.
Delight in the getting.
Delight in the giving.
A song in your soul, and
Someone to hear it.
The sweetest of nights.
And the finest of days.
A snug roof above you.
A strong self inside you.
The courage to go where you know
You must go.
And a good heart to guide you
With good friends beside you.
We wish you, We wish you
A dream worth the doing.
And fortune's face smiling
On all you're pursuing.
And pleasures that far, far
Outweigh your small sorrows.
Arms wide to embrace your many Tomorrows.
We wish you, We wish you, We wish you
The sweetest of nights
And the finest of days.

It seems only yesterday that I was pressuring Tamara to abandon her darling horses, and get a good college education in America.

She finally agreed on one condition, the only college she would consider applying to was Emerson!

And what if they wouldn't take her? I had endless nightmares of my daughter cleaning out stables for the rest of her life!!!!

When the wonderful letter arrived, I was starting to despair! Thank god for the admission board, who saw the potential of my very difficult teenager!!

Well done Tamara you were right all the way. Your mother didn't know you, and didn't understand. It might be your Polish blood.

We are so very proud of you
all our love Mummy and Daddy

Dear Matthew,

You did it!! We are so proud of you. Remember, the best is yet to come!

*We admired a woman who was known for her 'courage and determination'..
her 'inability to tell anything less than the truth'..
and her 'strength in goodness'...*

So we named our daughter after that woman instinctively feeling that one of those honorable qualities would one day be attributed to our own Katharine.

*As in your namesake, Kate,
'nothing you do should surprise us'...*

You are the embodiment of each one of those characteristics.

You colour our world.

We are so proud of you.

First Lesson by Philip Booth

Lie back, daughter, let your head be tipped back in the cup of my hand. Gently, and I will hold you. Spread your arms wide, lie out on the stream and look high at the gulls. A dead-man's float is face down. You will dive and swim soon enough where this tidewater ebbs to the sea. Daughter, believe me, when you tire on the long thrash to your island, lie up, and survive. As you float now, where I held you and let go, remember when fear cramps your heart what I told you: lie gently and wide to the light-year stars, lie back, and the sea will hold you.

Dana,

You are our pride and joy! We admire your poise, charm, eloquence & self-confidence. Your academic excellence is commendable. We are proud of your accomplishments.

Best wishes in your future

My Dearest Emersonians,

I could not help but feel sad as I watched our seniors, my best friend included, cross the stage receiving their diplomas. Their stay here at Emerson had come to an end. Now they will venture out into the real world, each to become stars in their own way. At this point, I came upon the answer to the question so many students had asked me, "Why on earth would you want to be editor of a year-book?" Emerson College and the people I have met here have greatly impacted my life. I am proud to say these are the best years of my life. Though editing The Emersonian has not been easy, I do not regret a minute spent on this book. Perhaps this was my way of saying thank you to Emerson College and my fellow Emersonians for making my college years special. To our seniors, we love you and wish fate to be on your side during the years to come. And a special thanks to all of my friends who worked on this book. Emersonians, like the stars in the sky, may you always shine bright with happiness and success.

Love Always,
